Secure Firearm Products Shooting Team Heads “Down Under” for the 2010 NRA World Action Pistol Championships

Carl Junction, Mo. – Secure Firearm Products (SFP) sponsored shooters Mark Itzstein and Ryan McQuilty head “down under” to the 7th Annual NRA World Action Pistol Championships, held October 6-9 at the Blacktown Pistol Club in Sydney, Australia.

Itzstein, a native Australian, began his shooting career in 1999 and quickly made a name for himself on the shooting circuit by winning such titles as Asia Pacific Masters Games and two-time champion of Australian International Confederation of Revolver Enthusiasts (ICORE). Mark has had several Top 3 Finishes at the Steel Challenge in Open Revolver and won the Australian Pin Shooting Nationals in 2001, 2002 and 2003. One year after relocating to the United States in 2006, Itzstein joined the Secure Firearms Products Shooting Team and began shooting and competing in action pistol. In 2009, Mark finished 8th at the NRA Bianchi Cup shooting 1914 of 1920.

McQuilty, also a native Australian, began shooting at a young age but didn’t get involved in the sport of competitive pistol shooting until later on in life. In 2002, on a whim, he bought a used 586 Smith & Wesson Revolver, flew down to Melbourne and entered the Australian Regional ICORE Championships, this effectively set off the competitive streak in him and he’s been competing ever since. Shortly thereafter, Ryan began traveling to the U.S. to compete in events like Steel Challenge and the International Revolver Championships (IRC) as well. At the 2005 IRC, he won an entry into the NRA Bianchi Cup for action pistol shooting. Ryan’s fondest achievements in his shooting career thus far include, placing Top 10 three years in a row at the Australian ICORE Championships and Top 20 In The World in 2005 and placing 3rd Open Master Division NRA Bianchi Cup in 2008.

The Blacktown Pistol Club will be the host site for the Sporting Shooters Association of Australia (SSAA) the 2010 World Action Pistol Championships are being held in conjunction with the SSAA National Championship. International teams are eligible to compete in this event. Awards will be presented in the following categories: Open, Metallic Sight, Production, Ladies, Junior and Senior divisions.
